Do You Like Stories?

The Veterans Breakfast Club is a 501(c)(3) non-profit dedicated to sharing veterans’ stories. There are no membership dues or requirements, and you don’t have to be a veteran to attend.

We hold monthly storytelling breakfasts at four locations around Pittsburgh, host special events and trips, and also direct Veteran Voices of Pittsburgh, one of the largest veteran oral history projects in the nation.

You’ve seen us on TV news, you’ve heard us on the radio, and you’ve read about us in the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette and the Pittsburgh Tribune-Review. If you like veterans’ stories, give us a try.

Call me at 412-623-9029 or email todd@veteransbreakfastclub.com.

Join us at the Heinz History Center for a tour, lunch, and storytelling program about 1968, the year that changed the world!

$20 per person

Saturday, March 9, 10am-2pm

Includes guided tour of the new 1968 exhibit, boxed lunch, and an open microphone storytelling program that gives you a chance to share your memories of that momentous time. We’d especially like Vietnam era veterans to join us and tell their stories.

Congratulations to Bullet Bob Daley, who is now Commandant of the Marine Corps League South Hills Detachment 726! Bob invites all Marine vets and current reserves to join. They meet the first Wednesday of the month. For more info, see marinecorpsleague726.com or call Bullet @ 412-344-5722.

Nick Steri served in the Navy in WWII in the Pacific on a Landing Ship, Medium. After searching for living crewmates, he found one: Jack Collins in Binghamton, NY. Last month, Nick traveled to Binghamton and reunited with his old friend. "You haven’t changed in 67 years, old buddy," called out Nick as he stepped off the plane. A local news crew was there to capture the reunion.
