The Veterans Breakfast Club is a nonprofit dedicated to giving every veteran a chance to share his or her story with the public. We hold monthly breakfasts in six locations around Pittsburgh where veterans tell funny, poignant and always vivid stories about their service.

Veterans need to tell their stories, and we need to hear them and remember them for future generations. Our Veteran Voices of Pittsburgh Oral History Project captures, shares, and preserves the stories we hear at the breakfasts.

All veterans, their families and friends, students and the general public are welcome to join us at any event. Just call 412-623-9029 to RSVP.

Congratulations to Kevin Farkas for winning a Magazine Cover of the Year Award for his June 2013 cover of Beaver Life, featuring a collage of our local veterans. Kevin is director of Veteran Voices of Pittsburgh, the VBC’s oral history project and the largest archive of veterans’ stories in the region. His cover, which includes photos by Andy Marchese, was selected from among more than 600 community magazines. Kevin wrote an accompanying Beaver Life article profiling our efforts to preserve and share veterans’ stories.
