Happy New Year!

2011 marks the third year of the Veterans Breakfast Club, and we have our most robust schedule yet: 26 breakfasts in four locations and four trips, ranging from a day in Akron-Canton for Air Force enthusiasts and two days in New Orleans at the National WWII Museum. In addition, we're also working with Dr. Edward Tick, a renowned expert on Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder, to host a veterans retreat for healing from war.

You'll notice a few changes this year as you look over our schedule. We have two new locations. After a long search, we've settled on a new breakfast spot in the North Hills: Grazie Restaurant in the Oxford Athletic Club (100 Village Club Drive Wexford, PA 15090). Manager Ryan Becktold is eager and honored to host us. Our airport location has moved to the 911th Air Base Club (911th Air Base, 2475 Defense Ave, Building 110, Pittsburgh, Coraopolis, PA 15108), which is looking forward to being a part of our events.

If you haven't yet joined us, please consider doing so. The Veterans Breakfast Club is a non-profit founded by Dan Cavanaugh and Todd DePastino who believe storytelling connects us all. There are no membership dues or requirements, and you don't have to be a veteran to attend.

If you have any questions or want more information, please call us at 412-623-9029. Dan or Todd will call you back.

Mission Statement:
The mission of the Veterans Breakfast Club is to create communities of listening around veterans and their stories. We accomplish this through regular breakfasts and other events, such as outreach sessions and bus trips to historic sites, designed to promote reflection, fellowship, and storytelling. Our current initiative focuses on veterans of World War II and Korea, but our mission is to reach veterans of every generation.

We believe that telling and listening to stories can nourish us and help build a more compassionate nation. Veterans’ stories--whether they be entertaining, instructive, commemorative, or healing--remind us that history is built one story at a time.
Here’s a way to Support the VBC - 100% of Bill Mauldin: A Life Up Front - book sales donated to us! You can support our efforts to keep the Veterans Breakfast Club going by purchasing discounted copies of Todd’s award-winning biography, Bill Mauldin: A Life Up Front. All proceeds go to the Veterans Breakfast Club. Todd will autograph a deluxe hardback edition, provide a custom inscription, and will even ship gift orders. The cost is $20 (over 25% off retail price), plus $4 shipping. Buy the book at a breakfast or order by calling 412-623-9029. Make checks payable to the Veterans Breakfast Club, 200 Magnolia Place, Pgh, PA 15228.
